MY STORY

How did I become a Retirement Revolutionary?

Dad had big dreams to live when he retired at 65, but died suddenly at 63.

Mom retired at 62, moving into what was expected – a traditional retirement of rest and leisure. Sadly, over the last 23 years of her life, I watched her slowly contract into herself.

Then, when leaping into my first retirement at age 50, I promptly crashed and burned. Then, crashed and burned several more times before I figured out a better way to live this next stage.

So, instead of retiring from life or waiting for life to begin, I decided first to retire those parts of my life that no longer fit and reinvent them, and second to squeeze every ounce out of whatever time I had left.

I relocated to a place of beauty, designed a life of balance and joy, and created an encore career that taps into my passion, earns me a great living, and for the first time in my life, I feel truly makes a difference.

Is my life perfect? Absolutely not. But, I'm no longer waiting to weigh less, exercise more, or do the "right" (read that as appropriate) thing in order to live life fully.

I'm a coach on a mission — to retire retirement, and pioneer whole new ways of living, and contributing, in the last decades of life.

I truly believe anything is possible. This is our time. There's less of it ahead of us than behind us. Don't waste a minute of it!
